GLOSSARY

View Full Glossary

- First Owner
When the first owner(s) obtains a title from a Department of Motor Vehicles as proof of ownership.
- New Owner Reported
When a vehicle is sold to a new owner, the Title must be transferred to the new owner(s) at a Department of Motor Vehicles.
- Ownership History
CARFAX defines an owner as an individual or business that possesses and uses a vehicle. Not all title transactions represent changes in ownership. To provide estimated number of owners, CARFAX proprietary technology analyzes all the events in a vehicle history. Estimated ownership is available for vehicles manufactured after 1994 and titled solely in the US including Puerto Rico. Dealers sometimes opt to take ownership of a vehicle and are required to in the following states: Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and South Dakota. Please consider this as you review a vehicle's estimated ownership history.
- Title Issued

A state issues a title to provide a vehicle owner with proof of ownership. Each title has a unique number. Each title or registration record on a CARFAX report does not necessarily indicate a change in ownership. In Canada, a registration and bill of sale are used as proof of ownership.

LEGEND

●●●●●	Good
●●●●○	Acceptable
●●●○●	Marginal
●●○●○	Poor
●○○○○	Very Poor

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) provides 3 different ratings - full-width frontal crash test , side impact crash test , and rollover resistance . The frontal crash test indicates how well the safety features and restraints will protect an occupant in a head-on collision. The side-impact test conveys the chance of a severe chest injury, while the rollover resistance rating estimates the risk of rolling over in a single vehicle crash. Go to NHTSA to learn more about these results.

Safety Recalls

NHTSA Safety Recalls:

Important: The following recalls were issued for the 1998 HONDA ACCORD EX by the National Highway Traffic and Safety Administration (NHTSA). To find out if a specific 1998 HONDA ACCORD EX still has open recalls that require repair, CARFAX recommends contacting an authorized dealership for more information.

Recall date:	06-14-2002
Units potentially affected:	1,000,000
NHTSA campaign number:	02V120000
Defective part or component:	ELECTRICAL SYSTEM: IGNITION: SWITCH

Description:	On certain sedans, coupes, hatchbacks, and sport utility vehicles, electrical contacts in the ignition switch can degrade due to the high electrical current passing through the switch when the vehicle is started. Worn contacts could cause the engine to stall without warning, increasing the risk of a crash. Dealers will replace the ignition switch. Owner notification began June 14, 2002. Owners who take their vehicles to an authorized dealer on an agreed upon service date and do not receive the free remedy within a reasonable time should contact Honda at 1-800-999-1009 or Acura at 1-800-382-2238.
Recall date:	Not reported
Units potentially affected:	570,120
NHTSA campaign number:	03V423000
Defective part or component:	ELECTRICAL SYSTEM: IGNITION: SWITCH
Description:	On certain passenger vehicles and minivans; the ignition switch may wear excessively and prevent proper interlock operation, making it possible to turn the ignition key to the "off" position and remove the key without shifting the transmission to park. If the vehicle operator does not shift to park before removing the key and fails to engage the parking brake, the vehicle could roll and a crash could occur. Dealers will perform an inspection procedure that determines the amount of cylinder body wear. If significant wear is indicated, the dealer will replace the cylinder body, collar and latch plate. If no signs of wear are indicated, dealers will replace the latch plate with a redesigned part. Owner notification is expected to begin during November 2003. Owners should contact Honda at 1-800-999-1009 or Acura at 1-800-382-2238.
Recall date:	Not reported
Units potentially affected:	83
NHTSA campaign number:	97V220000
Defective part or component:	INTERIOR SYSTEMS: RESTRAINT: BELT ANCHOR AND ATTACHMENT
Description:	Vehicle Description: Passenger vehicles. The front passenger seat belt retractor mounting bracket was improperly welded. This condition can cause the bracket to separate from the vehicle body in a crash. Dealers will inspect and repair these vehicles.
Recall date:	02-10-1998
Units potentially affected:	33,966
NHTSA campaign number:	98V018000
Defective part or component:	POWER TRAIN: TRANSMISSION: AUTOMATIC: INTERLOCK SYSTEM
Description:	Vehicle Description: Passenger vehicles (Honda Accord Sedans manufactured from September 18, 1997 to January 10, 1998; Coupes manufactured December 11, December 15, 1997, and January 5, 1998; Acura 2.3CL manufactured October 22, 1997 through January 7, 1998). During manufacturing, the casting die caused an irregularity in the right-side transmission cover. This irregularity can limit the movement of the parking pawl actuation level and prevent adequate engagement of the parking gear pawl. This does not comply with FMVSS No. 114, "Theft Protection." This condition can cause the vehicle to roll down an incline when the transmission is locked in "Park," increasing the risk of personal injury and/or property damage. Dealers will install a collar on the transmission parking pawl to ensure proper movement of the actuation lever.
Recall date:	Not reported
Units potentially affected:	124,875
NHTSA campaign number:	99V069000
Defective part or component:	SUSPENSION: INDEPENDENT FRONT CONTROL ARM: LOWER: BALL JOINT
Description:	Vehicle Description: Passenger vehicles. Certain vehicles were manufactured with ball joints that can prematurely wear out and, in the worse case, the ball joint would separate causing the front suspension to collapse. This condition would result in vehicle deceleration and a sudden loss of power. Also steering controllability would be reduced. Dealers will replace the front suspension lower ball joints.

New Car Test Drive Review

NewCar TestDrive.com

Category:	Review:
Summary:	This may be the best mid-size car in America. By Mitch McCullough, Editor-in-Chief, NewCarTestDrive.com Honda's new Accord sets the new standard for mid-size sedans. It's at or near the top of its class in every measure of a great family sedan. It offers a smooth, quiet ride quality, handling that inspires confidence, and an attractive interior with front and back seats that are roomy and comfortable. To those ingredients are added Honda's reputation for quality, durability and reliability. Not surprisingly, the new Accord is already popular and Honda's sales increased substantially after it was introduced. Don't look for exclusivity here, because Honda sells more than 375,000 Accords a year in the U.S. And don't expect bargain prices because this vote of confidence puts dealers in the driver's seat. Even so, those who buy the 1998 Honda Accord should enjoy many years of pleasant, trouble-free motoring. And those are important qualities for great family sedans.

Overview:

Almost every time Honda redesigns a car it steps to the head of the line in automotive greatness-at least for awhile. We think this is true of the all-new Honda Accord. Completely redesigned for 1998, this is the sixth generation of this popular car and it appears to have established a new benchmark for midsize sedans-a post most recently occupied by its arch-rival, the Toyota Camry. Honda says it has made more changes to this new Accord than any other model in its 22-year history.

Like the previous model, the Accord does everything well. Even more impressive, it's a much better car than the previous model. The interior is roomy and comfortable, the suspension is responsive and well damped, the brakes are excellent, and both brand-new VTEC engines-a 3.0-liter V6 and a 2.3-liter inline four-cylinder-are incredibly smooth.

This is a car that a family can buy, then quickly turn their attention to other concerns. Reliability should not be an issue. It is, after all, a Honda. And it's Honda's most important car. It's easy to drive and every aspect of it is user friendly. Obviously, those brilliant Honda engineers have once again done their homework.
